The meeting discussed individual progress on different tasks and planned to meet again to merge the work and discuss next steps.

Isaac has finished the contact page with a form that sends emails to a Gmail account.
Swaroop has completed the tagging system and only has the search bar left to do.
The team plans to meet tomorrow after 4pm to combine their progress and discuss further steps.

Give access to the RPI mart sec one@gmail.com Gmail account to the team members
